THE MARKET today did not present the anticipated appearance so familiar on Saturdays in by-gone days. A very small part of the benches under the sheds was occupied and the display of country produce was a sorry one compared with those of other days. In fact hucksters' wagons and green grocery stores are gradually but surely making the time-honored market house a thing of the past. There is no longer the crowd and bustle which characterized other days when at this season every bench had its Saturday tenant and country people huddled around their stocks on the brick pavement and lined the curb on Royal street from Market alley to King street. It is a noticeable fact that there is now but one cookshop in the market. In olden times there were at least a dozen, to say nothing of as many more lunch benches conducted by colored women who ministered to the requirements of the hungry with supplies of pie, pasty, cakes, puddings, and during the season raised an odor of frying bread and cakes and oyster fritters, while others dispensed boiled hominy. In those days Edward Valentine's rootbeer stand was an institution, as was also that of Chas. Brill, who daily exhibited a large stock of tinware, while fakirs sold razor straps, toothache drops and cement to mend broken chinaware. This morning a street preacher distributed tracts, and had some one come along taking orders for tombstones the picture would have been complete. Prices at seven o'clock this morning were as follows, but as the day advanced there was a weakening tendency: Butter 25c per pound, eggs 15c per dozen, cabbage cuttings 10c per half peck, kale 10c per peck, lettuce 2c per head, radishes of the diminutive variety 2c per bunch, onions 1c asparagus 15c, rhubarb 5c, and cabbage (obtained only from hucksters) at slightly lower prices than those of last week. Very few flowers were exhibited and but little poultry was visible. The supply of butchers' meat was up to the average, and prices showed no variation. Beef ranged from 6 to 20c per pound, mutton 10 to 15c, lamb 20 to 25c, veal 12 to 20c, pork 10 to 15c, corned beef 5 to 10c, salt tongues 35 to 50c, sheep tongues 50c, half pork 10 to 15c, puddings 5 to 10c, head cheese 10c, bologna sausage 10c, pork sausage 10c. The fish benches had fine displays, but prices were firm, with no shadow of variation. Shad were 25 to 40c each, herring 10c per dozen, bass 10c per pound, rock 12c per pound, large-sized peach 10c per pound, medium-sized 25c per bunch.

RECEPTION TO MR. EWEELL.—The congregation of the Methodist Protestant Church last night tendered their new pastor, Rev. J. H. S. Ewell, a reception of welcome. The reception took place in the church. Almost every member of the congregation was present, and the affair was in every particular a decided success. The following programme was rendered: Piano solo, Mrs. Chas. Hantzmon; address of welcome on behalf of the Alexandria clergy, the Rev. E. V. Regeater, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South; recitation, B. Whetzel; instrumental solo, George Turner; address of welcome on behalf of the congregation, J. H. Trimyer; solo, Miss Mamie Egan; address, M. H. Hantzmon; instrumental duet, Mrs. Emma and Miss Julia Hantzmon; address, E. H. Hantzmon; instrumental solo, Alexandria Mandolin Club. Rev. Mr. Ewell's response to the address of welcome was a fine effort and was listened to with close attention. After the exercises the congregation was introduced to the new pastor and his wife.

A large number of colored people will be baptized in the cove at Battery Rodgers at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. The candidates are recent converts of Mount Zeeb Church.

PROPERTY SALES.—Mr. S. H. Hunt sold at auction today for commissioners of sale K. Kemper, J. M. Johnson and A. W. Armstrong an undivided half of two adjoining lots on the east side of Alfred street, known as No. 216 south Alfred, to Mrs. E. A. Seaton, for $140; a lot in an open square bounded by Prince, Duke, Columbus and Alfred streets to Mr. Daniel Webster, for $50; a lot on Gibson street, No. 608, to Mrs. Eliza Magruder, for $145; a house and lot on Gibson street, No. 606 to Mr. J. C. Milburn, for $235; a house and lot on Washington street, No. 602, to J. C. Milburn, for $275; a lot of ground on Franklin street, extended west, to Charles E. Churchman, for $250; an undivided half interest in one and three-fourths acres of land on Hunting creek, excepting right to Manassas road, to Mr. M. E. Harlow, for $100; a tract of land near Gum Spring, in Fairfax county, containing 6 acres to Mrs. E. A. Seaton, for $21 per acre, also a tract of land, about 9 acres, adjoining the above, to Mrs. E. A. Seaton, for $17 per acre.

DEPARTED GLORY.—Old residents are often thrown into solitudes in passing up Fairfax street when their minds are carried back to the days of A. G. Newton and the Mansion House, now universally designated as the Bradlock House. Forty years ago this hotel, then Alexandria's principal hostelry, enjoyed a lucrative patronage, and the scenes both in and around the place were always animating. Omnibuses were in constant attendance and the porch and often the pavement was alive with people. It is different now. The building is at present a tenement house, or, in more modern language, a flat, while instead of the row of stores under it on the Fairfax street side the last vestige of them is a bunch of weeds displayed for sale in one of the windows, all the others being plastered with show bills, and defaced by dust and cobwebs.

PERSONAL.—Miss Ednah M. Tynder, who has been visiting her cousin, Miss J. M. Larnard, left for her home, at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., today.

Mr. M. Pretzfelder and Mr. Louis Bendheim, who have been in business at Greensboro, N. C., for some time, have returned to this city.

Mr. Warren Christian, who has been on a visit to his sister, Mrs. P. J. Dempsey, has returned to his home in New York.

The condition of Mr. W. F. Creighton is thought to have slightly improved today.

Mrs. H. Heber Boswell, of Charles county, Md., has returned to her home after an extended visit to her mother, Mrs. J. G. Chapman, in this city.

POLICE COURT.—The following cases were disposed of today:

George Harper, drunk in the street; dismissed.

Ida Evans, unlawful assault and abusive language to Mary Young, colored; detained.

Nora Smith, colored, assault on Nora Thomas, colored; dismissed.

Night Report.—Last night was clear and cool. Five lodgers and three prisoners were at the station house.

SERMON TO ODD FELLOWS.—At the M. E. Church South tomorrow night Rev. Mr. Regeater will deliver a sermon to Odd Fellows. Most of the members of the order in this city will be present. During the evening Mr. Richard Wirt will sing a solo, "Just for Today," and Miss Rebecca Pollard will sing "Ruth and Naomi."

CHURCH REPAIRS.—During the course of repairs on Grace Church, services will be maintained at the regular hours.

All celebrations of Holy Communion will be held in the rectory parlor which has been temporarily fitted up as a chapel. Other services will be held in the Sunday school room after the church services.

AFFAIRS AT FISH TOWN.—Apart from those engaged in cutting and packing fish there were but few people at Fish town today. The mild weather has not materially increased the receipts, but it has brought out the odor in all its rankness. Prices had not varied materially from those of yesterday.

A WIFE CHARGES DESERTION.—Elizabeth J. Grady in Washington yesterday filed a petition asking for divorce from her husband, John E. Grady, on the ground of desertion. The parties, it is stated, were married in 1882, in Fauquier county, and lived together over ten years. Messrs. Howe & Wallace are named as counsel for the petitioner.

THE REASON why I. Schwarz & Son, 518 King street, are constantly gaining new trade and doing such a rapidly increasing business is plain. "It's because of prices."

"I had piles so bad I could get no rest nor find a cure until I tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. After using it once, I forgot I ever had anything so painful." E. C. Boice, Seneca Falls, N. Y. Look out for imitations. Be sure you ask for DeWitt's.

MUSICAL.—A musical given in the M. P. Church lecture room Tuesday evening, was enjoyed by an appreciative and attentive audience. An interesting programme was rendered by some of the city's best talent. Noticeable on the programme was a quartette by Miss Lucy Graves, Mr. William Mills, Mr. Florence Sullivan and Mr. Ross. There were also solos by Miss Sullivan and Mr. Mills, the instrumental accompaniment to which were rendered by Mr. W. H. Starnell. "Beyond the Gates of Paradise" was sung by Mr. Benj. Kennedy, accompanied by Miss Edith Rotherford; Miss Margie Ramey rendered a solo and instrumental music. There was also instrumental music by Mrs. Emma Hantzmon and guitar and banjo duet by Messrs. M. F. Padgett and R. H. Hancock.

ENJOYING THE SUNSHINE.—The few hours of sunshine yesterday dried out the newly laid pavement around the monument and soon a number of the youth of the city recognized the utility of good roads even over a limited area and in the afternoon were sporting on their wheels at a lively pace around the circle, reminding one of the merry-go-round of the summer resorts. They at least evidenced the fact that day and evening that the circle will become a popular resort for roller skaters and wheels, otherwise a general playground for a portion of the juvenile population, and it behooves those who have the structure in charge to adopt such regulations at the start that will be sufficiently rigid to enforce the injunction to "keep off the grass."

A NUISANCE.—Complaint is made that the new road extension of Prince street is being made a dumping ground for refuse—discarded bottles, broken glass, rolls of old tin, &c.,—which is not only a nuisance in itself, but attracts boys there who scatter the refuse in every direction. Horses are frightened thereby, and yesterday a carriage containing three ladies was upset there by a frightened horse and a serious accident was narrowly averted. The Commonwealth's Attorney of the county, it is said, will be asked to indict those who throw refuse stuff in the roads.
